VOL. V, NO. 221 — FRESNO, CAL., THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1892 — PRICE—FIVE CENT

BEGINNING TO WARM

Avant Couriers of Democratic Aspirants

ALREADY ARRIVE AT CHICAGO

The California Contingent Departs Armed With Fruits of the Vintage.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The Democratic national convention is showing the first signs of becoming a thing of life, and on tomorrow it will begin to grow until by next Tuesday the biggest convention the Democratic party has ever held will be full grown.

The Boies managers from Iowa started a boom for their favorite son early this morning by establishing headquarters at the Palmer house, and were kept busy during the day sending out documents showing the great popularity of Boies.

The Cleveland men were not to be outdone by the Hawkeyes, and they established similar headquarters at the Grand Pacific, and letters and circulars are being sent to weak delegates who, it is supposed, can be won over if Cleveland is shown to be the strongest candidate.

Hill men appear to be on a still hunt, only one Hillite being on the ground, but this individual has sufficient enthusiasm for a half dozen and is loudly proclaiming the virtues of his favorite.

Members of the national committee will begin arriving tomorrow and Friday.

There will be a full meeting on arrangements.

The so-called Hill Big Four—Richard Croker, Boss McLaughlin, Edward Murphy and Lieutenant Governor Sheehan will arrive tomorrow. The probabilities are that the entire opposition to Cleveland will be combined and directed by the Hill men, who, when convinced that there is no possible chance for their man will center on a dark horse.

There are strong indications that the Cleveland opposition will assist Dan Voorhees in making trouble for Governor Gray in his probable capacity as a vice presidential candidate with Cleveland.

The position which the Illinois delegation will occupy is still uncertain, since the state convention friends of Colonel William R. Morrison, have by skillful management succeeded in securing control of the delegation, and the question now is whether Cleveland, Palmer or Morrison is to have their support deep to their instructions.

BOIES OR BUST.

Iowa Democrats Confident of His Success.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Headquarters for the Cleveland and Boies club were opened to-day. General John T. Tracy of New York is in charge of the former, and is busy making arrangements to capture delegates from the various states as they arrive.

At Boies' headquarters in the Palmer house the most conspicuous figure was L. M. Martin, delegate-at-large from Iowa. "We expect Governor Boies will have 75 or 100 votes on the first ballot," said he; "this is not guess work, because we have been in correspondence with some of the delegates, and had friendly letters from many. Boies will gain votes rapidly after a test vote is taken. Senator Vest of Missouri is here and says he thinks Cleveland will be nominated. Missouri will vote for him solidly from first to last."

DYED IN THE WOOL.

Ohio Democracy Select a State Ticket.

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.—The Democratic state convention met this morning.

The committee on resolutions has not yet been able to agree. General Finley and other free silver Democrats insist on the free silver plank of last year, but an effort is being made to straddle the question.

The convention was called to order by Chairman Norton, of the central committee. The mention in his address of the names of Cleveland, Hill, Gorman, Whitney and Campbell were greeted with applause.

Hon. J. E. Neal was made temporary chairman.

The following state ticket was nominated: Secretary of state, W. A. Taylor; supreme judge, long term, John P. Briggs; supreme judge, short term, Thomas Beer; clerk of the supreme court, W. H. Wolfe.

The platform was finally adopted.

Cleveland's Friends.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The San Francisco delegates to the Democratic national convention to be held at Chicago, left here to-day in a special train, which had been decorated with flags and bunting. The trip will be made over the Central Pacific, Union Pacific and Chicago & Northwestern roads.

Stops will be made at Sacramento and at Reno and at other points in Nevada, where the Nevada delegates will join the party, and on reaching Ogden at 7 p.m. Thursday, the Utah, Idaho and Montana delegations will be taken aboard. Cheyenne will be reached at 3.25 p.m Friday, and here the Colorado and Wyoming delegates will be added to the party, so that the train on leaving Council Bluffs will consist of at least ten cars.

The delegates will arrive at Chicago at 11:15 a.m. Sunday next, and the California delegation will make its headquarters at the Auditorium.

One of the cars leaving here today has been filled with products of well known California vineyards.

The Sacramento train bearing the delegates to the Democratic National convention reached here at 7.30 this afternoon. There were several hundred people at the depot who cheered loudly as the train came to a standstill. After an address by Mayor W. D. Comstock, short speeches were made by John P. Irish, Stephen M. White, W. W. Foote, Colonel Barry, Colonel Bairne, Judge J. F. Sullivan, M. F. Tarpey and W. D. English. All the speakers favored Cleveland, and each mention of the ex-president's name was loudly cheered.

Will All Be There.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Many signs of the coming exodus to Chicago were visible about the capital today. Senators and representatives were selecting trains and arranging little parties to travel together. The movement will begin in force tomorrow, when Senators Carlisle, Faulkner, Mills, Peasoe, Vilas, Jones of Arkansas, Ransom, Brice and Gorman will start for the wigwam on the lake. Later in the week members of the house will follow.

HAVOC IN SCHOOLS

Caused by a Life Destroying Cyclone.

MONTREAL, June 15.—A cyclone struck the little village of St. Rose, a fashionable resort near here, yesterday, and carried everything before it.

A little school house on the outskirts of the village was torn to pieces in an instant. In the school house were twenty children being taught by Miss Lacaisse.

The children were scattered like leaves in all directions and the teacher so badly injured that recovery is doubtful. Two children were dead when found, one died shortly afterward, twelve seriously wounded and the remainder more or less injured.

St. Therese school house, in which were 40 children, was also blown down, 2 children killed and many injured.

Reports from other sections also report many killed, and great damage to crops and property.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS.

Another Day's Session Devoted to Business.

SACRAMENTO, June 15.—The Grand Parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West met again this morning.

Two installation odes were submitted, one by Angelita Parlor No. 32, and the other by Santa Cruz Parlor No. 26. Both are so creditable that it is probable that they will both be accepted.

Santa Cruz parlor presented a new form of surgeon's certificates.

Several resolutions were offered and referred to the proper committees.

The afternoon session was spent in listening to the report of the committee on resolutions and other reports.

Beautiful snow plants were presented to the grand president, Miss Wittenmeyer, and the grand secretary, Miss Georgie Cotter, by Dardavelle parlor of Sonora.

An Insufficient Amount.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The sundry civil appropriation bill as it passed the house appropriated $80,000 for the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion act. Felton today in the senate proposed an amendment increasing the amount to $120,000.

SEEKING A SOLUTION.

PETITIONS ASKING FOR AN EXTRA SESSION.

Governor Markham Thinks County Officials Must Wait Awhile.

SACRAMENTO, June 15. — Governor Markham has received a formidable petition asking that a special session of the legislature be convened as soon as possible. The petition is signed by nearly all the county officers of Kern, Los Angeles, San Diego, Orange, San Bernardino, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Monterey, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Contra Costa, Alameda, Sacramento, Butte, Tehama, Shasta, Glenn, Eldorado, Siskiyou, Colusa, Yolo, Solano, Napa, Fresno and Tulare counties.

The petition says: "Under a decision of the supreme court we are prohibited from appointing deputies to be paid out of the county treasury of the several counties, which is absolutely necessary to a proper discharge of the duties of our respective offices. The business of the offices has gradually increased since the petitioners took office, and the salaries paid are insufficient to pay the incumbents an actual living if they are required to pay the salaries of such deputies as are necessary and absolutely required for the transaction of the public business. Public business is accumulating so that it is utterly impossible to dispatch it without the aid and assistance of deputies."

Notwithstanding this appeal, the governor will not hasten to convene the legislature, as he does not believe the result would justify the expenditure of $100,000, which would probably be about the cost of the extra session. Governor Markham does not understand how an immediate relief could be offered in the matter, as under the law the incumbent could not be benefited, as their salaries could not be raised or lowered while they held office.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Four hours were spent today in an argument on the silver bill, Morgan occupying three-fourths of the time by a speech in favor of the bill.

Without action the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The house went into committee of the whole on the fortifications appropriation bill. It appropriates $2,412,372. After a short consideration the committee rose and the bill passed.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the revenue bills. The first bill was called up by Shively of Indiana. It was a bill to reduce the duty on tin plate. Shively's speech elicited a good deal of applause from his party colleagues.

After some other speeches the committee rose and the house adjourned.

A Crooked Cook.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15—On board the bark Sonoma, which arrived today from Honolulu, the customs officers found secreted six Chinese who were attempting to illegally enter the United States. The Sonoma's cook, Henry Prohl, confessed that he had put the Chinese aboard ship, and with the Chinese was arrested. The stowaya will be sent back to China.

A Forging Sultan.

VISALIA, June 15—Joseph Sultan has been arrested at Porterville for forging checks for small amounts on business men of Visalia. He wrote checks here lavishly for a few days and then skipped

A Successor Wanted.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The Republican state central committee is in session here for the purpose of choosing a successor to Long Jones, who has been chairman for many years but declines to serve longer.

BROKE HIS ARM.

Serious Accident to a Son of A. C. Crossman.

The 8-year-old son of Engineer A. C. Crossman met with a severe and painful accident yesterday forenoon. The little fellow was swinging on a trapeze and lost his hold, falling heavily and breaking his left forearm.

The fracture was reduced by a surgeon and the little fellow was resting well last night.

A PLUNGE TO DEATH

By the Giving Way of a Trestle.

TWO DOZEN LABORERS KILLED

The Crushed and Mangled Remains of Many of the Victims Recovered.

CINCINNATI, June 15.—A casualty such as thrown a pall of sorrow over a community and sends a thrill of horror through the civilized world, happened on the Licking river, between Newport and Covington, Ky., this forenoon.

A wagon and street railway bridge was in course of construction between the two cities. The contractors for the iron work were Baird Bros. of Pittsburg. They were Andrew and Robert Baird, and they both went down to death with their two score or more of workmen.

The bridge was a strong wrought iron structure. The stone piers at each side of the river were finished. The iron works of the approaches are very massive, and the span between the two piers is about 600 feet.

The height of the truss which was to form the bridge span between piers was 65 feet above the water.

False work in the piling and timbers had been constructed in the river.

Thirty-six men were in the traveler at 10.30 when the awful crash came, and no one can tell how many were working below.

Suddenly the overtaxed beams of pine broke and crashed into the river below a mass of ruins, under which a score of lives went out.

The debris filled the deep stream from bank to bank.

People filled both shores and the stream was soon full of skiffs and the work of rescuing lives began.

This work was kept up all day and is still going on tonight.

On top of this false work the construction of the iron truss began midway between the two piers and the work was pushed from the middle both ways.

Five sections of ponderous iron work had been constructed on top. This was the apparatus known to bridge men as the traveler, which is used to extend the structure from the ends.

The traveler was full of men at 10.30 this morning and some of them near the top, nearly 100 feet above the water.

The timbers of the false work were beams about ten inches square, old and weather beaten, and evidently had been used before.

It was a mass of iron weighing hundred upon hundreds of tons that ever matched them and wrought ruin and death.

Charles Wilkerson was working on the engine on the Newport approach and was the first one to the rescue.

He says that everything went down in a heap. Wilkerson saved many lives of the wounded, then went diving for the dead.

The first dead man he found was James J. Johnson of Havre de Grace, Md. This man had a brother injured at Conova, W. Va., who has become insane from the injuries received while working for Baird Bros.

He had said that the Baird brothers were here on the bridge looking up testimony among men in the works.

The next man Wilkerson recovered by diving was Andrew Baird, one of the contractors who arrived here this morning and was on the bridge with his brother inspecting the work.

The Baird brothers were engaged on the great bridge at Memphis and have had much experience in bridge building.

The wounded were scattered all over the three cities of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport, and surgical attendance was prompt, efficient and amply sufficient.

KILLERS DISCHARGED.

TILLIE LUDWIG JUSTIFIED IN KILLING DE CLARKE.

Her Brother, Who Was Not So Good a Shot, Also Given His Liberty.

STOCKTON, June 15.—Tillie Ludwig, the young woman who shot and killed a brakeman named De Clarke at Tracy last week and was held by the justice of the peace at Tracy on a charge on manslaughter, was today discharged from custody on presentation of the report of the grand jury ignoring the case.

When the woman's case was disposed of the grand jury inquired into the charge against her brother, Henry Ludwig, who shot and wounded De Clarke several weeks ago while he was trying to steal into Tillie's room to kill her. The case against him was also dismissed.

The grand jury severely censured Maurice Byrnes, the Tracy constable who had charge of DeClarke when Tillie shot him, and charged him with gross carelessness in the discharge of his duty. The jury say the shooting of DeClarke by Henry Ludwig and the killing of DeClarke by Tillie Ludwig might have been averted by Constable Byrnes had he properly performed his duty as a peace officer.

Miss Ludwig left the courtroom with relatives and returned to her home on the evening train.

FINED $20.

Lord Chief Justice Haney Convicted of Embezzlement.

J. Haney, commonly known as Lord Chief Justice Haney, was fined $20 by Justice Prince yesterday for petty embezzlement. The evidence showed that the lord chief justice had done some collecting for Veterinary Edwards and had embezzled $4.50 of the proceeds. He paid the fine.

Lord Haney is a peculiar character. His forte is the collecting of brand new postage stamps from his friends. What he does with them is a mystery.

THE LAST SPIKE.

Imposing Ceremonies on the Collis Branch.

The last spike on the Collis branch was driven home near the oil house at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Owing to the fact that Colonel Huntington neglected to send an invitation to THE REPUBLICAN office a full report of the proceedings could not be obtained. The following was the program as furnished by an eye witness:

Hymn—"We're on the List."

Recitation—"All that the Traffic Will Bear."

Poem (by Mr. Huntington, read by Mr. Whitehaired)—"We Are Out For de Stuff."

Essay—"The People be Damned," by a railroad lobbyist.

Recitation—"Keep Out the Competing Line."

Oration—"The Railroad will be Satisfied with One-Half this Year's Raisin Crop."

Song and Chorus—"God Bless Our Home—The Railroad Commissioner's Office."

There Was No Strike.

There was a rumor yesterday that the men who were excavating the corner of I and Fresno streets, preparatory to the erection of a building there by the Fresno Street Improvement company, had struck. A member of the company was seen and he stated that the contractor who had agreed to do the work had given up the job, discovering he could not do it for the contract price. The men had all been paid their wages by the company and it was preparing a new agreement with another contractor. Work will begin in a day or two.

A Foreclosure Suit.

James V. Logan began suit in the superior court yesterday against James M. McCarty and wife to foreclose a mortgage given to secure a promissory note of $6000.

On February 3, 1891, McCarty and wife made a promissory note for the amount stated to J. F. Mosely and Cyrus Mersing. The note was subsequently assigned to the plaintiff in this case, who prays for judgment for $6000 and costs.

Mosely is the missing auditor of San Joaquin county.

TWO UNHAPPY WOMEN

WANT DIVORCES FROM THEIR HUSBANDS.

Florence E. Lee and Mary Thurmann Tell Their Tales of Woe.

Mary Thurman yesterday filed a suit for divorce against Eli B. Thurman.

The plaintiff alleges that she and defendant intermarried on September 28, 1884, and that there is now living issue of this marriage a daughter aged 6 years.

In October, 1890, the defendant deserted her without cause and without the consent of the plaintiff and still continues to live apart from her.

The plaintiff therefore asks for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony between her and the defendant, that the custody of the child be awarded to her and that she be permitted to resume her maiden name of Mary Krohn.

Another suit for divorce was filed in the superior court yesterday by Florence E. Lee against James E. Lee.

Florence alleges that she and James were married at Lemoore, Tulare county, on August 18, 1890. The chief ground on which she asks a divorce is cruel and inhuman treatment.

She relates that on January 15th last at Reedley Lee threw her to the floor and then and there threatened to kill her, himself and Delbert, their son.

Lee didn't kill himself or the others, however, evidently wishing to attain a greater muscular development before shuffling off this mortal coil. With this object in view he exercised his jaw on or about May 1st of this year by calling Florence names and threatening to kill her and their son.

He told her that she would have been an abandoned woman if he had not married her and said other vicious things. On June 2d, Florence alleges, her husband took their boy, Delbert, and put him in a wagon to take him away from her. While plaintiff had hold of the wagon begging him not to take Delbert away Lee drove off so suddenly as to throw her down and seriously injure her right arm.

For further cause the plaintiff alleges that for more than a year past defendant willfully neglected to provide for her, though having the ability and means to do so, he earning $75 a month as a barber. Instead, she has had to support herself and child and in part the defendant.

Plaintiff therefore prays that the bonds of matrimony between herself and husband be dissolved, that she be awarded the custody of their child, and for any other relief the court may deem just.

The promoters of the McKinley tariff mean it to push forward the policy of America for Americans. One method of realizing it was to keep all work within their own dominions. The country was to be made self-supplying; what could be produced at home was not to be bought abroad. That was the key-note of the McKinley scheme, and it is working out the idea of its designers with the precision and effectiveness of a machine.—Sheffield (England) Daily Telegraph.

FRESNO'S DISGRACE.

The greatest misfortune that has ever befallen Fresno is its subjugation by a gang of political bosses whose highest motive is to perpetuate themselves in power and subserve their selfish purposes at whatever cost that may be to the public.

This political cabal—the Triangle, its inspiring spirits and its henchmen—have already cost the city dearly. It has not only disorganized and demoralized one of the best and most successful volunteer fire departments in a western city, but it has brought disgrace on the name of Fresno as an enlightened and moral community by introducing the most vicious political methods known to the lowest districts of the great cities, in which purlieus of vice all semblance of decency and honor are trampled under foot without the slightest compunction. These are facts which are deplored by every respectable citizen of Fresno, regardless of political affiliations.

Bad as all this is, and detestable to every honest citizen, still more deplorable and menacing to the welfare of the people is the too plainly evident determination of this conscienceless gang to bring under the sway of their political power the municipal and township courts of this city, to the end that their allies and friends, the macquereaux and vagrants of Chinatown, shall enjoy immunity from the operation of the law. That they have not miscalculated their power to carry out this hold program is made painfully evident by events which have come to light in the past few days, if evidence was before lacking.

The facts regarding the case of John F. Daly, the vagrant who is now, by grace of the city council, a saloon keeper in Chinatown, are infamous enough to excite the honest wrath of the most patient citizen. This man, who is a notorious habitue of the Chinese quarters, was arrested on a charge of vagrancy nearly ninety days ago, and recently when the city recorder was asked concerning the case he stated that it had been overlooked and would be set for trial. A few days later he gave the information that he had dismissed the case, stating as his reason that the prosecuting witness had declared his inability to prove the charge. This prosecuting witness was Officer Zenor of the police force, and when he was asked why he had sufficient evidence upon which to arrest this man for vagrancy but not enough upon which to bring him to trial, he admitted that a stronger influence than he could withstand was brought to bear upon him, and he declined to make any further statement on the ground that he did not wish to lose his position, being a poor man and dependent upon it for a living.

What do you thing of this sort of thing, citizens and taxpayers of Fresno?

Do you think that your rights and your property are in safe hands when officers of the law are intimidated in the performance of their duty and prosecuting officers and courts, ignorantly or otherwise, acquiesce in the shameless travesty? When the city council selects the person against whom a serious criminal charge is made and grants him a license as a person of good moral character to conduct a saloon business, and at the same time the criminal charge against that person is dismissed because the complaining witness was intimidated, are matters not coming to a pass that they demand some more effective action than indignant protests?

FRESNO has a number of flourishing fraternal societies, in all of which patriotism and love of country are leading features of ritual and ceremonial teachings. Is there not among their number one organization sufficiently alive to the need of the hour to come to the front and take the lead in a patriotic celebration of the national holiday in Fresno? The lack of public interest in the matter is due entirely to want of some body of citizens to take the lead in preparing a program and arranging the details. The celebration need not be made on a grand or expensive scale, but it is not at all creditable to a city of this size that the anniversary of the country's birth should be permitted to pass by without recognition. Any organization which would decide to take the management of a celebration, however modest in detail, would certainly have the hearty co-operation of the public.

FOREIGNERS PAY THE TARIFF.

The Dry Goods Chronicle of October 3, 1891, a perfectly reliable textile journal, called attention last year to the method of paying the McKinley increase in duty adopted by the Chemnitz (Germany) cotton hosiery manufacturers. It pointed out that the Chemnitz goods were actually selling more cheaply in this country under the higher duties than they sold under the lower duties of the old law. The new duties are compound, 50 cents per dozen and 30 per cent ad valorem on the first five classes, 75 cents a dozen and 40 per cent on the last. The old duties were 40 per cent ad valorem on all six classes. From these figures, and present and former prices as quoted by the Chronicle as a basis, we get an interesting table showing with mathematical accuracy just who pays the increase in duty:

CLASS.	McKinley increase in duty	Price of Increase went added	Real price under McKinley law	Reduction by foreign manufr
1.....	80 c3	$2 83	$2 23	$1 56
2.....	34	2 59	2 09	59
3.....	28	2 43	2 15	63
4.....	40	1 80	1 02	78
5.....	86	2 86	1 85	91
6.....	74	5 24	3 50	1 74

Thus we see that where we put our tariff 33 cents a dozen higher, the foreigner sold his goods 58 cents a dozen cheaper; where we put it 34 cents a dozen higher, he dropped 59 cents in his price. On class 3 we advanced the duty 33 cents a dozen, but he came down 53 cents; on class 4 we went up 40 cents, he came down 78 cents, and on 5 and 6 he dropped 51 cents and $1.74 a dozen, respectively, so soon as our tariff went up 30 cents and 74 cents respectively. Who pays the duty?

If it be asked how the foreign manufacturer managed to make so great reductions, the answer is forthcoming from the columns of the Chronicle. It says:

In order to retain our trade the manufacturers of Chemnitz have made a reduction in prices of low-priced goods of 35 to 40 per cent. below those of a year ago. They reduced the wages of factory hands to an extremely low rate, and also the wages of case (box) makers, cotton spinners and label makers. The fall in the price of cotton helped them to obtain the raw material at a much lower rate, especially the lower grades. But apart from all these conditions, they have been willing to accept a profit of only 1½ to 2 per cent. instead of 8 to 10 per cent., as formerly.

So that there is not the least doubt in the world about the foreigner's paying the duty on ordinary classes of goods also produced in large quantities in this country. Numberless illustrations might be cited, but those given are sufficient for reasonable men, and the unreasoning cannot be converted.

A TULARE farmer has demonstrated that a good crop of beets can be grown on land strongly impregnated with alkali. The Times says that J. A. Lytle, whole place is a mile and a half south of Farmersville, had an acre of ground upon which nothing would grow, so he concluded to try beets this year. He plowed and harrowed the land, sowed the best seed and rolled the ground as hard as he could. The yield of beets was large, and Mr. Lytle says he is satisfied that a few crops of beets will reclaim the land. This might be tried by other farmers who are troubled with alkali land.

NO SERIOUS mistake can be pointed out in the administration of President Harrison. Although questions of a most serious and complicated nature have arisen, their settlement has been in every instance satisfactory and to the best interests of the country. The government cannot be entrusted to a more capable or safe guidance than he has given it.

TULARE has raised a purse of $1000 to pay the expenses of celebrating the Fourth. That is an evidence of vitality that would be creditable to a certain town that is several times larger in population and wealth.

OAKLAND puts in a bid for the Republican state convention. It offers a fine summer climate. The inducement is worth considering as a mid-summer proposition.

Republics are ungrateful; ain't they Dan, my bosom friend?
After what we did for Allord he's a growling without end;
Says we threw him down quite hard on the last election day,
When we fought like Indians for him in the thickest of the fray.
There's Laning, too; he helped mount the biggest in the troop
And, just our luck! our truest friend, we've dumped him in the soup,
He squared my pard, Jack Daly, and did it pretty slick,
But the way the papers' howling makes me sad Lanning's sick.
But cheer up Dan, we've got Old Cole and Fahey to stand by
And Crichton, he stood with us when the fur began to fly;
They're one for us Maloney on the next election day,
So while the sun is shining let us make our loss of hay.

REMARKABLE!

YET TRUE

Is the fact, but we continue to lead as the cheapest house in the valley.

THE REASONS WHY.

1. Because we deal with only the largest firms in the United States.
2. Because we buy in such quantities as to obtain inside figures.
3. Because we are content with a smaller percentage of Profit than any house in the San Joaquin Valley.

You Don't Believe It?

Of course not. We don't expect you to until we are permitted to demonstrate the fact in a purchase that will open your eyes wider than they have ever been opened before, even in this wide-awake community. Remember it remains with you to be convinced.

A meeting of the advisory board of the Democratic clubs of this city is called for tonight. It is said the board will consider preparations for ratification so as to get the start of the Cleveland club. McGUIRE'S FISTULA.

It Causes Him to Imbibe Too Freely.

Charles McGuire was up before Justice Crichton yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. McGuire was arrested the night before, being under the influence of liquor.

He pleaded in extenuation that he was suffering severely from a fistula and resorted to the flowing bowl to obtain relief. McGuire stated he had intended to take the morning train for San Francisco to enter St. Mary's hospital for treatment.

Justice Crichton was impressed with McGuire's story and dismissed the case.

IN BOY'S CLOTHING.

Romantic Freak of a 14-Year Old Girl.

STARTED FOR SAN FRANCISCO

May Buchanan's Hat Blew Off and Her Hair Came Down at the Wrong Moment.

Little May Buchanan dressed herself in boy's clothes and tried to steal away to San Francisco on the noon train yesterday. Her sex was detected by the merest accident and she was taken off the train by a policeman and restored to her mother.

It was a romantic freak nipped in the bud, and an experience that the little girl will not be likely to repeat. Her plans were surprisingly well made for a girl of 14 years, and would have been successfully carried out had it not been for a gust of wind that blew her hat off and let her hair down.

It was well that her project miscarried, for if she had gone to San Francisco and had escaped the discerning eyes of the policemen on duty at the Market street ferry there is no knowing what misfortune might have befallen her.

AN AMBASSADRESS.

The first act in the romance began about 10 o'clock yesterday morning when a young girl entered the office of the Grand Central hotel and engaged room No. 36. She gave the name of May Arnold, Fresno, and this the clerk entered on the register. The girl took the key and went away, and a few minutes afterwards May Buchanan, carrying a good sized valise, went up to room 36 and remained there until shortly before the arrival of the north bound train from Los Angeles.

Then a very handsome little boy with black curly hair and attired in a new suit of clothes walked down stairs to J street and turned the corner of Tulare street. She passed by THE REPUBLICAN office on her way to the train and none of the passers by suspected that the dark eyed boy was a girl, but as she was passing the office of Mattingly & Stamford, near the corner of I street, a little gust of wind blew her hat off, disarranged her wig and let her hair down.

"OUR HEROINE PURSUED."

In some confusion the girl rearranged her hat and wig and walked on toward the railroad depot at a rapid gait. But the ill wind, which blew the romantic May ever so much good if she only knew it, attracted the attention of a gentleman in Mattingly & Stanford's office who knew the girl and recognized her. He followed behind her and saw her get on board the cars, and he saw also in the waiting room of the depot a young man named Charles Bustillos, a sport whom the gentleman had seen talking with the girl on several occasions.

He asked Bustillos whether he had seen Miss Buchanan get on the train, and Bustillos replied that he had not, and affected ignorance of the girl's whereabouts and intentions.

Bustillos appeared to be ill at ease, and as soon as the gentleman turned his back to find a policeman Bustillos went into one of the coaches and is reported to have spoken to the girl, who at once went into the smoker of a Pullman coach, where she was found by the policeman whom the gentleman from Mattingly & Stanford's had advised of the condition of affairs.

The girl told her captor that she was going to visit her friend Effie Ward in San Francisco, and that she had donned boy's clothing because she did not wish to be recognized while going away, as her mother had not given her permission to leave the city. She declined to make any further statement, and was taken to her mother and grandmother on K street, between Mariposa and Tulare.

ONLY A GIRLISH FREAK.

The girl's grandmother, Mrs. Treos, was seen at her residence a short time after the girl arrived, but she declined to make any statement, further than that it was merely a romantic girl's freak, for which May was very sorry. She declined to allow the girl to be interviewed, and said that May had been in correspondence for some time past with a girl friend from Fresno, Effie Ward, now residing in San Francisco, and that May wanted to go on a visit to her without the consent of her mother.

"How much money had she?" was asked.

"O, just enough to pay her fare; about twenty dollars," was the reply.

WHERE DID SHE GET THE MONEY?

"Where did she get the money?" was the next question.

"She's been saving it up for the past month. She used to remain in Mr. Gilbert's paint store while he went out, and he used to give her 50 cents or so for taking charge of the store, and she told me that she saved all this money. We used to live next door to Mr. Gilbert's and May used to be around there a good deal.

"The poor girl is heart broken over the affair," added the old lady. "It was only a silly freak."

HUNTING UP THE MONEY.

Mr. Gilbert, the painter, was called on and expressed surprise and regret on learning what had happened.

"All the money I gave the girl during the past month," he said, "would amount to not more than $4. Her mother has been leaving pictures for me to sell and I have paid her some money. The little girl and her sister, I understand, have been selling old bottles, demijohns and other junk and she probably raised her money in that way. I have known the family for a long time, and I know the little girl to be very ladylike in her language and actions. I never knew her to do anything wrong."

On further inquiry it was learned that the girl who engaged the room at the Grand Central was Rosa Spinney, daughter of Joseph Spinney the brick maker and contractor.

Miss Buchanan bought the boy's clothes at Wiener's store, and she told the clerk that she was going to assume the character of a boy at an entertainment. She paid $12 for the suit, but it was a little too large for her and she had it cut down.

District Attorney Tupper is investigating the matter with a view of finding whether any man had a hand in the girl's escapade. Should such prove to be the case, Mr. Tupper will vigorously prosecute the offender.

PROFESSOR HEATON REPULSED.

Miss Buchanan attended school in the high school building on K street until the schools closed last Friday. Professor Heaton always found her to be ladylike and well behaved and she never gave her teacher any trouble.

"Some time ago," said the professor, "I called upon her me her for the purpose of advising her to keep her daughter off the streets, and I did not meet with a pleasant reception. I thought I was going to be thrown out of the door. I got small thanks for my trouble."

The girl's mother is blamed by a good many people for having allowed her daughter too much freedom. May has been often seen around the chemical engine house talking with a fireman, and when the Kamamo Medicine company was here a short time ago, May became acquainted with some of the attaches and frequently visited their headquarters in the Edgerly building. While it is believed that the girl has not behaved improperly, it is a common subject of remark that grown men, many of them of dubious character, are not the proper companions for a pretty and well developed girl of fourteen.

AN ENJOYABLE RECEPTION

Given by the Class of '92 to the Seniors.

On Tuesday evening the Fresno High school building resounded with merry voices and the strains of sweet music. The occasion was a reception tendered to the graduating class of '92 by the now seniors of the high school. The school house was a mass of flowers and other decorations, arranged by the fair hands of the young ladies.

A short program was rendered, consisting of the following selections: Piano solo, Miss Kittie Goldwell; address of welcome, Jesse M. Whited; reply in behalf of class of '92, J. P. Bernhard; guitar solo, Miss Matie Stone; recitation, Miss Cleora Worth; address, Prof. T. L. Heaton; vocal solo, Miss Agnes Helm.

At the conclusion of this dancing and other amusements were indulged in until 11 o'clock. At this time the guests were asked to partake of an appetizing repast. After feasting the merriment was resumed and continued until a late hour.

No special mention can be made of any particular person as all performed their parts creditably.

WIFE BEATER COLLINS

Sentenced to 270 Days Imprisonment Without a Fine.

C. C. Collins, the wife beator, appeared for sentence before Justice of the Peace Prince yesterday. The justice read him a stern lecture on the brutality of his offense and the total lack of provocation, or of any other mitigating circumstances, and sentenced Collins to 150 days imprisonment in the county jail on one charge and to 120 days imprisonment on the other, making a total of 270 days.

Comment on the sentence was that it was a proper one and that Collins received no more than he deserved.

PRINCE AND FAHEY.

THE JUSTICE IS DISQUALIFIED FROM TRYING THE BOSS.

Some Well Known Politicians Whose Names Will Be Dennis in November Next.

Justice of the Peace Prince left for San Francisco this morning for the purpose of consulting an aurist concerning an attack of partial deafness that has afflicted him. He will remain away for two or three weeks undergoing treatment, and during his absence the business of his court will be attended to by Justice of the Peace Shannon of Kingsburg.

Justice Prince is disqualified from trying the case of the People against Boss Fahey, charged with battering an old man named O'Connor, because at the time the case was pending in Justice of the Peace Crichton's court Justice Prince discussed the facts of the case and expressed an opinion thereon.

The case was afterward transferred to Justice Prince's court and he announced that by reason of the foregoing facts he was not qualified to try the matter.

It was generally reported both before and at the Democratic primary election that the Triangle element worked against Prince's renomination for justice of the peace. The vote showed that a strong influence was operating against Mr. Prince. If Sam Edwards had been better known or if he were a stronger man politically he would have easily beaten Prince. Crichton received a larger vote because the machine rallied for him in gratitude for his action in the First ward club matter, but Prince was scratched unmercifully and many of the votes were cast for Edwards.

Prince will be surely defeated at the polls in November, as he cannot count upon the strength of his party in the Third township. Crichton will go the same way, because the mass of the people admire and require backbone in their officials, even if it is only that dubious article known as "the backbone of a whale."

Above and beyond all this is the fact that the average citizen does not approve of judges and officers of the law dabbling in machine politics.

The Triangle and the Court House Ring are politically dead and universally damned.

TERRILL'S BAD LUCK.

Sings Amatory Songs to the Unappreciative and is Arrested.

Thomas Terrill feels that the world is down on him, that he is a genius whom the heartless and soulless police of this city have conspired to suppress.

Thomas was roaming through the lumber yards night before last and the romantic surroundings, together with the mellow moonshine and the mellower mouthfuls of old rye, inspired him to sing a merry roundelay or two.

They were as full of passion as the lays of the troubadours or Sappho's odes, and made the pine boards sweat. The gentle night breeze wafted the refrain to the ears of three policemen on Front street who, totally unimpressed by Terrill's dulcet saxophone, made a descent upon him and lugged him to jail.

Yesterday morning Terrill appeared before Justice Crichton to answer to a charge of disturbing the peace by singing vulgar songs. Terrill stated that the songs were not vulgar, but were from the "Mikado." The justice was unconvinced, however, and fined Terrill $7.50.

Allburn Out On Bonds.

E. S. Allburn, charged with embezzlement, was admitted to bail in the sum of $200 by Justice Crichton yesterday.

The arrest was made the day before in San Francisco. Allburn was bookkeeper for Charles Schroder, who gave him $10 with which to pay a bill in the city. Schroeder alleges that Allburn appropriated the money to his own use.

HASKINS DEAD.

The Victim of a Cold Blooded Murder.

AFTER WEEKS OF SUFFERING

The Deceased Was Attacked in the Night and Left for Dead.

A. G. Haskins, who was knocked off the lumber flume near Centerville on May 20th last, and beaten into insensibility by two men with scantlings, died at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

One of his assailants, whose name is Blume, is now in jail and a charge of murder was registered against him yesterday. The other assailant has evaded arrest.

The assault, which culminated in murder was a most cold blooded and brutal affair. Haskins was walking on the flume about a quarter of a mile from Centerville on May 20th, between 9 and 9.30 o'clock at night. His assailants, who were crouching in the shadow of the flume thrust a scantling up in front of Haskins and caused him to fall to the ground. Then they set upon him and beat him into insensibility, and when they heard a herder approaching they left their victim for dead.

Eight of his teeth were knocked down his throat and his skull was crushed in several places. The unfortunate man was attended by Drs. Podlar, Spongle and Jacoby, who found it necessary to perform the critical operation of trepanning, a piece of the skull bone having been driven into the brain. The removal of the jagged bone only prolonged Haskins' life for a few days.

The deceased was 40 years, 10 months and 6 days old, and was a brother-in-law of Nick P. Justy of this city, Mrs. Haskins being a sister of Mrs. Justy. He was a member of the A.O.U.W. lodge of this city, and will be buried in their plot in Mountain View cemetery.

The inquest will probably be held here today.

The deceased leaves a widow and five children.

A CLEAN TOWN.

Fresno Complimented Highly on Its Neat Appearance.

"Fresno is the cleanest town in California," said our friend, R. H. Bently, on his return from the Democratic state convention. We indorse his statement. There is nothing shabby about Fresno. From 5.30 in the morning to 10.30 in the evening we were abroad in the city for three days, when the Prohibition convention was held there, and it is an ideal inland city. The principal business streets are covered with hard asphalt. The sidewalks are of artificial stone. The stores are fine brick buildings, and look neat inside. The residence streets are lined with trees, half concealing neat cottages. Evergreen hedges and grass plots give a fresh and inviting look to many front yards.

We chanced to board a car Friday morning bound for the Fresno Fair grounds. An elderly gentleman of pleasant address occupied the car. We soon learned his name was Dr. Lewis Leach, on his way to visit the county hospital, of which he has the care. If we could stop over one trip he would be pleased to show us the race track, the club house, and the extensive grounds. Thanking the doctor for his courtesy, we accompanied him over the premises, and it is safe to say that Fresno is ahead of any town in the state for racing accommodations.

A mile track in prime condition; a grand stand commanding a view of every foot of the road from start to finish; a club house with every convenience for members and their families, including elegantly furnished parlors, dancing hall and public and private dining rooms; club stables and racing stables; shaded grounds and walks for pedestrians; and new grounds planted with trees and shrubs to be secunied a year or two later as an enlargement of present attractions. From the tower of the grand stand we had a magnificent view of the surrounding country. Building lots can be had at moderate figures. One five-acre tract, in bearing trees and vines, with good cottage, was pointed out to us and price named at $4000 for the land and improvements. It struck us as very cheap. Fresno must be a nice place to live in. It is certainly a nice place to visit. The people and the town deserve all the praise the speakers at the Prohibition convention bestowed, and the editor of this little paper adds his good words of thanks and praise for the courteous manner in which he was treated at the Hughes, and elsewhere in the city.—Oakdale Graphic.

ANTI-SALOON MEETING

To Be Held at the Presbyterian Church To-Night.

There are ninety-seven saloons in the city, and three applications for liquor licenses before the city council.

Why not stop right here and now? Grant everybody the right to drink what he pleases, but no one has the right to prepare and set a death trap for his neighbor. The young and weak are enticed into the saloons and fleeced after being made drunk.

At the Presbyterian church to-night, this question of "Saloons or no Saloons" will be discussed. It will be red hot. Let whiskey men come. You will be fairly treated, but the people will demand that no more saloons be opened in Fresno.

A big temperance meeting tonight, to consider the most important question before us at this time—no more saloons.

COMMITTEE.

AMUSEMENTS.

RAISINS.

PACKERS ASKED TO CO-OPERATE FOR A MARKET.

An Important Circular Issued By a Committee on That Important Matter.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—The first step toward a practical solution of the raisin problem has been taken; the following circular letter has been sent to all the packers of the state; those who should fail to get said letter will please consider this a substitute and send in their answer. This is a step in the right direction; the packers and growers cannot afford to be antagonistic. We wish them success.

THE CIRCULAR.

Fresno, June 15.

Dear Sirs—On account of the present unsettled conditions and doubtful outlook of the raisin business we deem it advisable and to the interest of the raisin industry as well as the whole state of California that all the packers (including the co-operative companies) in Fresno and Tulare counties, and if possible the southern and northern counties, enter into an agreement and fix minimum prices on the various grades of raisins on a reasonable basis, said prices to be subject to alteration by a duly authorized and elected executive committee of three packers.

A meeting of all the packers will be called at an early date if sufficient encouraging replies are received.

Hoping that the plan will meet with your approval, and that we may be favored with your ideas in regard to the same without delay, we are

Yours respectfully, A. D. Barling, Noble Bros., Fresno Raisin Co. by O. B. Olafs, Committee.

AN ELEGANT FUNCTION

GIVEN BY MISS LOUISE WRIGHT LAST EVENING.

It Was In Honor of Miss Mary Gillespie of Jackson, Miss.

A very fine event was the party given last evening by Miss Louise Wright in honor of Miss Mary Gillespie of Jackson, Miss., a niece of W. D. and H. C. Tupper.

The residence of the Wrights is an ideal place for an affair of the kind given by Miss Wright. It has spacious grounds around it, which were illuminated last night by innumerable Japanese lanterns. The walk to the house was also lined with lanterns.

In the rear of the residence somewhat to the right, were a number of tents where refreshments of a very appetizing kind were served during the evening. There were salads, cold meats, relishes, cakes and cream.

The entire lower part of the house had been converted to the use of the guests, the parlors and reception rooms were prettily decorated and brightly illuminated. The verandas were inclosed by Japanese screens in order to keep out the wind, and were also profusely decorated with growing plants.

In fact, nothing had been omitted that would contribute to the comfort or the pleasure of the guests and they consequently spent a most enjoyable evening.

The genial major and his hospitable wife assisted their daughter in entertaining the guests and, of course, contributed much to the pleasure of the younger people.

The evening was pleasantly whiled away with music, games, conversation and a little dancing. Everything had been arranged with such care and the pretty hostess was so attentive that the affair was pronounced one of the most delightful that has taken place this year.

There were present the Misses Belle Ritchie, Ruth Rice, Fannie and Marie Helm, Betty and Mary Maupin, Carrie and Lou Anderson, Mamie and Alice Hopkins, Mary and Lutie Lucas, Annie Laurie Harris, Cora Winchell, W. Potts.

Messrs. W. C. Colson, J. M. McClure, J. L. Maupin, Monte Thomas, Frank Helm, Walter Ferguson, L. Smith, Captain Othello Scribner, F. Fiester, E. A. Walrond, W. D. Weaver and others.

MR. NICHOLS' FOUNTAIN

HE WRITES AN ACROSTIC IN PRAISE OF IT.

An Ice Cream Boom to Be Started Today in Aid of the Funds.

D. E. Nichols, who has charge of the subscription list for the new drinking fountain, will inaugurate what he calls "an ice cream fountain boom" for the purpose of raising the remainder of the fund required.

Through the kindness of Fulton G. Berry, who has tendered Mr. Nichols the free use of the store room adjoining the Grand Central hotel on the south, there will be opened today an ice cream bazaar, attended by the handsome ladies of the W.C.T.U., who will dispense frozen cream to all comers, irrespective of sex or politics, at 25 cents per plate and no change given back. The proceeds will be donated to the fountain fund.

Dollar subscribers who have not yet paid up will find Mr. Nichols at the ice cream resort, where he will be happy to receive the right hand of fellowship with a dollar in it.

Mr. Nichols, while waiting for subscribers to come to the front, has composed the following acrostic, the beautiful and affecting sentiment of which should appeal most powerfully to the delinquent subscribers:

Think you not, kind friends,
How many there are
Every day who throw their hard earned
Dollars right over the bar. Say they,
Rather than take them to my needy homes
I'll spend it right here for drink."
Now is it not true that if you
Kindly construct a fountain
In behalf of this drinking people
Now and forever they will bless your
Great heart and generous deed
For saving them a dollar or two?
On then to victory grand!
Unto you and our children we give it,
Not forgetting the stranger, too,
Thinking and hoping that ever
As you drink of the water so clear,
It may give you a desire to be temperate and
Not to drink so much beer.

Carping critics may object to the foregoing acrostic on the ground that it lacks both rhyme and meter. But it has reason in it, and has a very soothing, persuasive ring. There is nothing inflammatory about it, and its tendency is highly moral. It moreover possesses the one great requisite of true poetry, and that is that it gets there.

A REMARKABLE LETTER.

A Prominent Professional Man's Extraordinary Statement.

(N. Y. Sun)

To the Editor. Sun,—As my name and face have appeared in your paper and the public print lately, and as many of my professional brethren are wondering at it, I feel it only just that I should make an explanation. The statement published over my name was made ten years ago, after long and mature investigation, and I have never changed my mind as to the fact then stated. At that time I said, as a physician, that I believed Warner's Safe Cure was the best of all known preparations for the troubles it was advocated to cure, and I say so still. I know it is considered the proper thing for the medical profession to decry proprietary and other advertised articles; but why should they do so? As the late Dr. J. G. Holland, writing over his own name in Scribner's Monthly, said:

"It is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day are more successful than many physicians, and most of them were first discovered or used in actual medical practice; when, however, any person knowing their virtue and forseeing their popularity secures and advertises them, in the opinion of the bigoted all virtue went out of them."

Dr. Holland was an educated physician, an unprejudiced observer, and he spoke from a broad and unusual experience. Proprietary medicines should not be decried. The evidences of their value are overwhelming. I have seen patients recover from gravel, inflammation of the bladder, and Bright's disease after using Warner's Safe Cure, even when all other treatment had failed.

I make this frank and outspoken statement in the interests of humanity and because I know it to be true. I trust for the same reason you will give it to the public. Respectfully,

R. A. GUNN.

Knew He Was Going.

"I'm only a tramp," said a little, withered old man early yesterday morning in the Mulberry street police station, "but please let me stop here. I've walked a great deal. I'm footsore and weary. I won't be a bother much longer. I'll soon throw in my chocks."

He had the pallor of death.

"I never take in any one at 3 in the morning," kindly replied Sergeant Herbolt, "but I'll make an exception in your case. Poor fellow, you look played out."

Yesterday morning Policeman Croughan took the old man, who gave the name of John Irving, to the Tombs police court. He wanted to be committed to the workhouse.

"The top o' th' morning, yer honor," he said to Justice Duffy. "This'll be th' last time I'll bother ye. Give me a good long sentence."

The justice, however, did not fix any specified time. Under the commitment the old man could get his liberty when he wanted it.

"Take your time," said the policeman, as he assisted Irving down the winding flight of stairs leading into the prison.

"My wife!" gasped the old man down stairs.

By this time they had reached the warden's office, where the pedigrees of the prisoners are taken anew.

"Well, what's the matter with your wife?" asked a keeper.

"She's in heaven!" replied the tramp. The next instant he fell back dead into the policeman's arms.—New York World.

Came from Cuba to Vote.

The last vote deposited in Rhode Island at the recent election was the vote of Eugene McAuliffe, of Providence. The gentleman was in Cuba when he received a cablegram telling him of the urgent necessity for every vote. Consulting the shipping register, he found that by taking a steamer which sailed that night he might with good weather reach Boston the day before election. Two hours later found him aboard the ship. Adverse weather delayed the vessel, and at the dawn of election day the steamer was still out in the Atlantic. Port was reached late in the afternoon, and McAuliffe was just in time to take a train to Providence due just ten minutes before the time for closing the polls.

The train was four minutes late. Hurling himself into a hack he bribed the driver to get to the wardroom in six minutes or kill the horses. The clock was about to strike the hour as Mr. McAuliffe bounded into the booth. His cross marks were made with lightning rapidity, and he got in his ballot right on the last stroke. He will return to Cuba to complete the business he dropped to come back to vote. And yet there were some thousands of people in Providence who, I have no doubt, forgot to go to the polls or were "too busy" to give the time required for walking to the wardroom.—Cor. Boston Globe.

Canoeing in Scotland.

Lord and Lady Mount Stephen, who have spent very many years in Canada, have introduced canoeing in Scotland. They have taken the beautiful estate of Faskally, Perthshire, belonging to Mrs. Butler, which comprises a stretch of the picturesque river, Tummel, which runs through the Pass of Killiecrankie to Athole and all that district, and, in order to explore more fully, Lord Mount Stephen has brought home a Canadian canoe and two real Canadian boatmen. They have already shot some of the dangerous rapids of the Scotch river, and been investigating the salmon pools among the bowlders in otherwise unseen spots. Lord Mount Stephen intends to use his canoe later on for salmon fishing. The novelty has created a great deal of interest in the neighborhood, extending to the local party at Blair Athol castle. —London Queen.

Utah's First Pavements.

After a long fight in the Ogden city council over the relative merits of sandstone, brick and asphaltum for street paving purposes, it has been decided to use native sandstone from the quarries a few miles distant from Ogden, and that only home labor shall be employed by contract. The district to be paved includes a number of blocks in the business part of town, for which paving bonds are now being negotiated. It will be the first paving done by this city or in this territory.—Utah Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Priceless Diamond Found.

A remarkable diamond has been recently found on the Koffeyfontein Diamond Mining company's ground in Australia, which appears to be of such value that even competent judges hesitate to name a price commensurate with its worth. It is said to be of a beautiful shade of pink, entirely devoid of spot or blemish, and to weigh 13½ carats.
